Dear Bob:-

This letter, recapitulating our exploratory phone conversation over the weekend, formally invites you to be one of our discussion leaders at WORLDVIEW '78 on our campus during 16-17 March. The Theme: "How to be Intelligent about Intelligence." The purpose: To improve general public understanding on important international and foreign policy matters. The audience: Anywhere from 200 to 400 members of the general public (depending on weather and all of the other factors that influence audience size), including large numbers of honor-student high school seniors plus some faculty members and students from the university. WORLDVIEW is an annual event co-sponsored by the Patterson School and by the Greater Lexington Rotary Club, in cooperation with some 35 other Rotary Clubs inside approximately a 100-mile radius around Lexington in Central Kentucky.

I should tell you that, several weeks ago, I phoned Admiral Turner seeking his permission for me to approach a senior official as our VIP keynote speaker, and a younger authority as one of our group discussion leaders. Admiral Turner gave me his blessings to proceed as requested. We are delighted that our good friend and distinguished native son of Kentucky, Scott Breckinridge, has agreed to be our VIP keynoter. Now, we greatly hope that you too can accept our invitation, to be one of the featured discussion leaders. We expect to have several other military and foreign service officers helping us in this role too.

We stand ready to cover all expenses associated with your Lexington trip for WORLDVIEW '78. On the other hand, if Admiral Turner prefers to cover any part or all of your expenses, this is acceptable too.

Ideally, we hope you can fly over on the evening non-stop departing Washington National at 2040 (Eastern #655) on the night of Wednesday, 15 March, and you could return on the non-stop (Eastern #504) departing Lex at 0730 on Saturday morning, 18 March--unless (which would certainly please us) you cared to remain into the weekend as our personal guest.

Best regards, Vince Vincent Davis
